

Limited Protection Policy

Thank you for your interest in Crop Max brand tires for your farm equipment. We are proud of the quality and performance of the wide range of Crop Max products and we understand that your continued satisfaction is essential to our success.

Eligibility.

This Limited Protection Policy applies to all Crop Max brand products marketed by American Omni Trading Company bearing the complete description and serial number. This Limited Protection Policy applies only to Crop Max brand tires purchased after January 1, 2020. Tires purchased before that date are subject to previously published protection policies.

What is covered under this Limited Protection Policy.

This Limited Protection Policy is effective only for Crop Max brand tires for which claims are made within four (4) years of the date of production, based on the production date indicated by the tire serial number.

Workmanship and materials: All Crop Max brand tires are protected against defects in workmanship and materials for the life of the original usable tread. The original usable tread is defined as the total original tread depth less 2/32" for tires with DOT codes. Tires with 2/32" or less remaining tread depth in any groove are considered worn out by the U.S. Department of Transportation. For tires not required to have a DOT code, The original usable tread is defined as the total original tread depth. Tires adjusted under the terms of this Limited Protection Policy will be credited at the current wholesale price less the percentage of the original usable tread remaining on the tire.

Any labor, balancing or disposal charges related to the replacement of a tire under the terms of this Limited Protection Policy are the tire owner's responsibility.

What is not covered under this Limited Protection Policy (Exclusions):

1. Unserviceability due to road hazards (cuts, snags, punctures, bruises, impact breaks, etc.) improper inflation, overload, irregular wear, wheel imbalance, defective vehicle mechanical components (i.e., brakes, shocks, rims) improper suspension alignment, accident, fire, theft, chemical damage, chain damage, racing, off-road use, run flat, improper installation, vandalism, or abuse.

6. A tire whose failure is related to any previous damages and/or repairs.
7. Ride iiDisturbance after first 1/32 of tread depth
8. Any cost of tire repair
9. Weather cracking on tires older than 2 years (from the production serial week on the tire).

Owner's Obligations.

1. At the time of purchase, the tire(s) must be properly installed, balanced, and air pressure set to the equipment manufacturer's recommendation. At least monthly the owner must check air pressure (when tires are cool) with an accurate air gauge and re-inflate to recommended level.
2. All Limited Protection Policy claims must be presented to an authorized Crop Max brand dealer.
3. Crop Max brand dealer must fill out the AOT Limited Protection Policy Claim Form completed with all necessary information regarding the tire claim.
4. Owner must pay any costs related to the new tire, less credits and including charges for mounting and balancing.

Legal Rights.

Any implied Protection Policies, including Protection Policies of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, shall be Limited in duration to the above period. To the extent permitted by law, American Omni tire shall not be responsible for incidental or consequential damages, such as loss of use of the tire or the equipment on which it is used, inconvenience, or commercial loss. Some states do not allow limitation on how long an implied Protection Policy lasts, or the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. This Limited Protection Policy for Crop Max brand tires gives you special legal rights, and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state. This is the only express Limited Protection Policy applicable to Crop Max brand tires, and it supersedes the terms of any previous warranty. American Omni neither assumes, nor authorizes anyone to assume for it, any other Limited Protection Policy. This Limited Protection Policy is subject to change without notice.
